DEFENDS MEMORY OF STUART.

Armed with evidence secured from General Robert E. Lee's field letterbook, Col. John S. Mosby, the famous ranger of the Confederacy, in a letter to the Richmond Times Dispatch, comes gallantly to the rescue of the memory of Gen. J. E. B. Stewart in connection with his part in the disastrous Gettysburg campaign. In his letter Colonel Mosby roundly attacks General Longstreet, General Long, Col Walter Taylor and Col. Charles Marshall, the latter two of General Lee's personal staff, all of whom have published reminiscences and historical works in which the charge is freely made that the Gettysburg campaign failed because of the absence of General Stuart with his cavalry. All of these writers state that General Lee was in ignorance of the fact that Hooker had crossed the Potomac, and of the fact of the immediate proximity of the enemy, until the report of a spy on the night of June 28th at Chambersburg.

Producing authentic letters in the handwriting of either Colonel Taylor or Colonel Marshall, and signed by General Lee, to General Ewell and others corps commanders, Colonel Mosby undertakes to prove that the fact of the near approach of the enemy was known at headquarters at least a day earlier, claiming that the spy was a figment of imagination of later historians.

Showing by further letters that Stuart remained in Virginia and followed the federal army in its retrograde movement in pursuance of instructions from General Lee, Colonel Mosby shows a number of discrepancies between these letters and the official report of the battle, written for General Lee in the handwriting of Colonel Marshall, which report puts all the blame on Stuart for the failure of the campaign. The suggestion is made by the famous ranger that the Confederate chieftain signed his name to the document without reading it, as there are evident discrepancies between this and other reports and letters.

Colonel Mosby also combats the generally accepted report published by later historians that the engagements at Gettysburg were accidental and not planned by either side. He denies the statement of General Heth that in his advance of July 1st he ran "unexpectedly" against the enemy, showing by the recently published letters, access to which, by the way, was denied him by Colonel Cutshaw before publication, that General Heth was sent to Cashtown on the 28th, and that "hearing that the enemy was at Gettysburg," he moved forward to make a reconnaissance, which developed into a raid and broke the plan of campaign. Although shown plainly by General Lee's letters, none of this, states Colonel Mosby, as shown in the report written for General Lee by Col. Marshall.

OVER THE FALLS.

Brewster Cameron, sixty-five years old, a merchant of El Paso, Tex., was drowned at Niagara Falls, Saturday evening. With F.H. Fulford, of Belair, Maryland, and C. D. Pidball, of Buffalo, he was sitting on the bank of the river, about half a mile above the falls and where the bank was very steep. When the party attempted to arise, Mr. Cameron, who was somewhat stiff from sitting in one position, lurched forward and fell into the river. His companions made every effort to rescue him, and a park policeman also made an attempt, as Cameron neared the falls, but in vain. Cameron retained his consciousness to the end, waving his hand to those on shore just a moment before he passed over the falls.

For Chronic Diarrhoea.

"While in the army in 1863 I was taken with chronic diarrhoea," says George M. Felton of South Gibson, Pa. "I have since tried many remedies but without any permanent relief, until Mr. A. W. Elected!

This is a momentous period in the history of this country—two great parties battling for political supremacy. This is true in no greater degree with parties than with business houses and many times in the bustle and hurrah incident to increasing trade one is apt to represent an article 100 per cent better than it really is. It has been said that "a word to the wise is sufficient," but our experience has taught us that the bulk of the people buying goods today cannot be led by deceptive methods—they have to be shown. We want to say to you that any goods we place our stamp of approval on are just as we represent them. A trial order of any brand we advertise will prove what we say to be true. We want to submit for your consideration this week a few of our medium grades of Whiskies, which we guaranteed will give satisfaction.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, OCT. 5, 1908.

A SIGNAL victory was gained on Saturday by the opponents of the theory advanced by Dr. Koch, the eminent German scientist, minimizing the danger of human infection from bovine tuberculosis bacilli, when the sixth triennial International Congress on Tuberculosis, just before final adjournment in Washington, placed itself on record in opposition to the views of the German savant. The controversy over this momentous issue, which has been the subject of spirited debate during the entire proceedings of the congress, reached its climax Saturday, when that body, by unanimous vote, adopted a resolution recognizing the "possibility" of human infection from the bovine tuberculosis bacilli. The text of the resolutions is as follows:

Resolved, That the utmost efforts should be continued in the struggle against tuberculosis to prevent the conveyance from man to man of tuberculosis infection as the most important sources of the disease.

That preventive measures be continued against bovine tuberculosis, and that the possibility of the propagation of this to man be recognized.

The action of the congress will likely put a quietus to further agitation, at least until the next meeting of the congress in 1911.

AT the Tuberculosis Congress in session in Washington last week, Surgeon General Von Unterberger, honorary physician at the court of the czar of Russia, declared that all tendency to disease is to be regarded as hereditary, whether or not the same disease can be traced back in each case to parents or ancestors. He said the tendency to consumption is inherited, and that it may be developed by various agencies. Numerous autopsies show that every man over 30 years old has the remains of a tuberculosis infection. His conclusion is that, while trying to destroy the germ of the disease, they must direct their efforts chiefly to strengthening the body by hygienic and dietetic means.

YESTERDAY morning in the Church of the Redemption, Locust Point, Baltimore, Rev. Crawford Frost preached a sermon to young men. Among other things he referred to hazing as practiced in schools, colleges and universities. He said:

Hazing must be branded as a disgraceful and cruel crime and a hazer must be flogged as, in some states, a wife beater is. A big boy who beats or injuries a little boy should be treated in the same way as a strong man who beats or injuries a weak woman.

Such a course would doubtless break up this dangerous practices and the sooner laws are passed providing flogging for hazers the better.

MR. "NICK" LONGWORTH, the president's son-in-law, would arrange presidential affairs to the "family's" satisfaction and save the people any further concern in the matter, were it left to him. In his speech at Rock Island, Ill. last Friday as heretofore stated in the Gazette, Mr. Longworth advocated the election of Judge Taft for two terms and then a return of eight years more of Mr. Roosevelt to the White House. This is all very kind and considerate of Mr. Longworth, but there are others who might object, besides the several candidates who present themselves every four years.

IT IS again stated that Mr. Roosevelt has decided to take the stump for Judge Taft. The report is that the president has tentatively agreed to make a whirlwind dash from the Atlantic to the Pacific, delivering six speeches, the last in San Francisco. This is proof conclusive that the president thinks his candidate is in grave danger of defeat and that he only can save him.

MR. HERMAN RIDDER, the editor and owner of the New York Staats-Zietung, who was recently selected to succeed Haskell as treasurer of the democratic national committee, has published a want advertisement calling for 500 men to contribute $1,000 each to the democratic fund. Are there not so many good democrats in all the country?

AS HAD been anticipated, Bulgaria has declared her independence of Turkey and a war seems inevitable. There is considerable anxiety in European capitals over Bulgaria's action, as in the event of a prolonged struggle the map of Europe may suffer alterations to the detriment of some nations and to the benefit of others.

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Oct. 5.

Treasury officials from the secretary down, were exceedingly reticent today, in discussing the seizures of contraband cameos and coral jewelry which have been made in New York and which may possibly lead to the discovery of a smuggling conspiracy of large proportions. The jewelry so far seized, is said to be worth $20,000 while smuggled gloves and laces which have been captured, will bring the value of the seizures up to about $50,000.

The resignation of Hamilton Fish, assistant treasurer of the United States at New York, which was offered by him because he has been nominated to run for Congress, has been received and accepted by the president, to take effect at the end of the month.

Gov. Gen. Smith, of the Phillippines reported to the War Department today that for the twenty-four hours ending at eight o'clock Saturday morning, there developed ten new cases of cholera. The situation continues to improve, he states.

In his efforts to improve the methods of goverment supervision of National Banks, Comptroller of the Currency Murray today followed up his lecture of two weeks ago to the national bank examiners, by speaking some plain words to the sixteen receivers of national banks which has been called together for a week's conference in Washington.

Government mediation in railway labor disputes, regulation of railway capitalization, Car efficiency, and uniform rules governing the transportation of explosives—there among the questions to be considered by the twentieth annual convention of the National Railway Commissioners which will hold its opening session tomorrow at the rooms of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Addresses will be made by Chairman Knapp of the Interstate Commerce Commission; Martin S. Decker, of the New York Public Utilities Commission and other men prominently identified with national and state regulation of common carriers

The United States has no particular interest in the military and political movements in the Balkens which threaten, if carried to their logical consummation, to change the map of that section of Europe.

The absorbing question as to whether or not the President will take the stump for Taft remains unanswered. At the White House today it was stated that the situation was unchanged. The last preceding statement was that the President had not decided as yet to make any campaign ships.

Denial was made at the White House today by Secretary Loeb of the report that the President had called his son-in-law, Representative Longsworth off the stump on account of the speech he made at Rock Island, Ill. last Friday, predicting eight more years of Roosevelt in the White House, beginning in 1916.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Fire destroyed a large commissary building today at Dorchester, a mining town near Big Stone Gap, Va. A bakery, barber-shop and postoffice were destroyed. The loss is $30,000.

The sheriff at White Plains, N. Y., today destroyed 1,500 barrels of beer and whisky. The liquid was seized originally from a dealer at the county fair who had forgotten to get a license.

It was stated at the Diocesan House in Hartford, Conn., at 9:30 this morning that Bishop Tierney of the Diocese of Connecticut is in a dying condition and not expected to survive the day, as a result of a stroke of apoplexy.

Dynamite was used in Ebensburg, Pa., today to stop the progress of a fire which destroyed two hotels, three stores and two dwellings with a loss of $100,000. Several fireman were badly burned in fighting the flames.

The British steamer Nesleyside, Captain Bedlington, from St. Michaels, for Key West, was driven ashore on Abaco Island in a hurricane October 1. The steamer is a total wreck, but the crew were saved and have arrived at Nassau.

The opinion prevails in American fleet circles that Lieut. Evans, son of Admiral Evans will be found guilty by the court martial that is to try him on charges of absenting himself from duty, drunkenness and disrespectful language to a superior officer.

The strike of the 500 chauffers employed by the New York Taxicab Company is expected to take a still more serious turn today, as a result of the violence of yesterday during which a boy was shot and possibly fatally injured by a special policeman guarding the strike-breaking drivers.

Congressman Longworth, who is in Cincinnati, today denounced as a campaign lie the printed story that in a speech at Rock Island, Ill., he proposed that after Judge Taft had served two terms as president that President Roosevelt would again be a candidate for the presidency.

About 75 of the eminent physicians who have been attending the International Congress on Tuberculosis at Washington last week, are in Baltimore today for the purpose of studying the methods by which this city combats consumption. This morning the visitors were welcomed at the City Hall by Gov. Coruthers and Mayor Mahool, after which they were taken in automobiles on a short tour of the city. Today's programme included inspection of the hospitals and medical schools.

Fourteen members of the Women's Suffrage League went to a place of registration in New York today in an orderly manner and in an equally orderly manner departed registration having been refused them.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 5.—New York financiers and stock market speculators quickly demonstrated today that they do not intend to let the threatened war between Turkey and Bulgaria upset the local stock market. The leaders got together and decided that the situation did not warrant a decline and on receipt of stronger advices from abroad they shot in buying orders until the market fully recovered its strength. At the end of the first hour the market was moving upward. Practically the early losses were recovered and in a number of stocks important net gains were made.

Jumped from Burning Building.

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct., 5.—A candle lighted to burn during Yom Kippur ceremonies fell from a dining room table in the home of Kaufman Kroll on Poplar street today and caused a fire. Mrs. Kroll and her four children, all under ten years of age, asleep in the third story front room, became panic-stricken when awakened by the smoke. Rushing to the window the mother threw out the children one by one and then jumped herself. The crowd in the street was horror-stricken when the children were dropped to the pavement. An awning was spread beneath the windows, but it collapsed with the fall of the first child. The mother, who weighs more than 200 pounds, ignored the cries of the crowd not to jump and plunged to the street, sustaining serious injuries. The children were painfully bruised. LETTER TO GEORGE AULD

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: Suppose you are buying 25 gallons skim milk a day of a neighbor to feed to hogs for $1.75; 7c a gallon, a fairly close price.

If he wants more money and you won't pay it he can put-in ½ water and get for his milk 9c a gallon—not worth while to cheat for 2c.

If he puts-in ⅓ water, he gets for his milk 10c a gallon—that's better.

If he puts-in ¼ water, he gets for his milk 14c a gallon—good price.

If he puts-in ⅛ water, he gets for his milk 21c a gallon—counts up.

If he puts-in ⅛ water, he gets for his milk 28c a gallon—that's business, so long as the hogs will stand it.

Which will he do?

There are over 200 paint-manufacturers in the United States, making paint in all those ways from pure to ⅛ whitewash; 8 make it pure; 200 put-in from ⅛ to ⅛ whiting, china-clay, ground stone, barytes, benzine and water. They get whatever they like for their "paint"—it's all called "paint."

Skim milk isn't any too good for hogs; let 'em take their water separate. Paint takes care of your property; keeps it dry; better put it on strong, not diluted with whitewash. Devoe is the strongest there is; least gallons to buy and brush-on; least money for both; least cost; wears longest because it's the strongest. Yours truly,

F. W. DEVOE & Co.

Today's Telegraphic News

Eleven Persons Lose Their Lives at a Fire.

New York, Oct. 5.—Eleven persons dead, several on the cots of St. Gregory Hospital fatally burned and six seriously injured is the toll of an incendiary fire which early today gutted a rookery tenement in the heart of the Mulberry street district. Cut off from escape the inmates, crazed with terror, plunged into the roaring furnace seeking relief from the agony of suspense.

Before the occupants of the building were awake the one stairway of the building in front was a seething chimney of flame and the fire escape at the rear so choked with refuse and debris that firemen were unable to reach the terror-stricken occupants or guide them to safety. The few who did manage to escape threw aside all caution and jumped to the roofs of adjacent buildings, thence to the sidewalks, many sustaining internal injuries that will result fatally.

Six infants were thrown from the windows into the arms of the police and firemen on the sidewalk.

Scenes in the Mulberry street district were heart-rending. When the flames were first discovered through one small door of the congested tenement a panic ensued. Pistols were fired and the denisons of little Italy ran to and fro, shouting incoherently but no thought of turning in an alarm.

Terror-stricken faces appeared at the dirty windows only to disappear into the black smoke behind as terrific explosions rocked the building. Women screamed and men in their night raiment crept onto the window casings ready to jump.

Firemen and police reserves, cut off from their repeated attempts at rescue, shouted themselves hoarse in a vain effort to command the frenzied inmates not to jump. Fire nets were spread and aerial ladders shot toward the flame-choked windows, with to these devices little or no attention was paid.

Streams of water were dashed against the building, tearing away doors and windows like chaff before the wind. When the water batteries had succeeded in beating back the flames sufficiently the first detachment of fire fighters entered the building.

After a thorough investigation Fire Marshal Kelly concluded that the building was fired by an incendiary. On the testimony of two persons, whose names have not been disclosed, the fire marshal said.

"This fire is the result of a black hand attempt at extortion. From reliable witnesses I learn that two men were seen rolling a barrel into a hallway of the building and within ten minutes the place was a fiery furnace. Two explosions occurred the minute the fire alarm was turned in. When the explosions were heard the building, hallways and stairs burst into oily flames."

As to the declaration of Nicholas Longworth that President Roosevelt should be renominated after eight years of Taft Mr. Hitchcock would say nothing, but it is understood that the speech of the president's son-in-law in Pittsburg tonight is looked forward to with no little interest.

MEN'S MISSION CONFERENCE.

Arrangements are being perfected for a stirring conference of laymen on the subject of foreign missions, in the Second Presbyterian Church on next Sunday and Monday. Rev. Motte Martin, of the Presbyterian mission in the Congo Free State, Africa, will make the opening address at the regular morning service on Sunday. Mr. Martin went out with the late Henry C. Slaymaker and was rescued after the wreck of the mission steamer Lapsley in the Congo river in 1903, when Mr. Slaymaker was drowned, and this incident will give him special interest to the people here. Mr. Martin has a wonderful story to tell of the remarkable work in the "Dark Continent." He will speak again at 2 o'clock on Sunday to a big mass meeting of children of all denominations, and a third time at the session of the conference at 11 o'clock on Monday morning. The full programme of the conference will be published later.

DAY OF ATONEMENT.

With the sinking of yesterday's sun began Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement of the Hebrews, which in the Hebraic calendar is the holiest day of the year. It falls on the tenth day of the seventh month, Tishri. The observance of the day will continue until this evening at sunset. The services last night in the synagogue in this city were conducted by Rabbi Samuel Schwartz, of Cincinnati. Services were also held today. Five days after the Day of Atonement, or at sunset next Friday, the Feast of the Tabernacles will begin. This feast, however, will not be observed by the Israelites of this city.

The stores conducted by Israelites in this city were closed today and will not be reopened until tomorrow morning.

Jr. O. A. M. TO MEET.

The State Council of the Junior Order of American Mechanics will meet in Lynchburg in annual session on October 20 for two sessions. It is probable that a night session may be necessary. The council will begin its work after a public session, at which several citizens and members of the order will make addresses. One of the most important reports to be considered during the meeting will come from the committee appointed to consider the establishment of a state orphange. The impression among local members of the order is that steps will be taken for the establishment of such an institution. Jackson Council, of this city, will be represented at the session.

STEAMER LAUNCHED.

The new steamer Southland, of the Norfolk and Washington Steamboat Company, was launched Saturday afternoon, at the Newport News Shipbuilding Company's wharves. Miss Ida N. Smith, daughter of the secretary-treasurer of the company, christened the steamer. After the launching the party was tendered a banquet by the shipbuilding company. The new steamer is 305 feet over all; the molded beam at deck is 51 feet, the draft aft 18 reet and the draft forward 10 feet. Her speed will be twenty miles per hour. By February 1 the Southland will be in service.

RESIGNED FROM FORCE.

Officer John Henderson this morning tendered his regisnation as a member of the police department to take effect at once. This creates a vacancy to be filled at the next meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners and as there are numerous candidates their friends are already astir. No reason is assigned by Officer Henderson for his resignation but it is reported that he had learned that charges against him of conduct unbecoming an officer were to be presented to the mayor and has decided to resign rather than stand a trial.

HAS MANY FRIENDS.

Sergeant G. W. Suffrage, of Knoxville, arrived here today and will tomorrow take back to that city Charles O. Tulloch, who is wanted there on the charge of having assaulted a man in that city two years ago. Sergeant Suffrage says the charges are not of a serious nature and are being pressed by men unfriendly to Tulloch, who he says was a very good citizen. Tulloch with his wife and children have been living here for two years. They will all return to Knoxlile tomorrow. During yesterday many of his associates in the machine shops of the Southern Railway called to assure him of their friendship as well as to offer what assistance they could.

FOUND NEAR THE RIVER.

A stranger who was acting in a suspicious manner on the river front in this city early last night was taken into custody by Special Officer William Mullen and locked up at police headquarters. The man gave his name as John Keough, of Newburgh, N. Y., and said he was a painter. He told the police that he had invented a cement which he believed to be superior to anything on the market. The man is about 40 years old and on one side of his head is a large cut, which has evidently been recently dressed by a physician. As there was no charge placed against him he was dismissed this morning.

The ceremonies were in charge of Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons. Dr. William M. Smith, of the school board, and past master of the was marshal.

Rev. William J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, delivered an appropriate address. The music was furnished by the Masonic choir—H. K. Field, S. Frank Field, M. L. Dinwiddie, J. T. The box which was deposited in the corner stone contained copies of the Alexandria Gazette of October 2 and 3, 1908; a penny, a nickel, dime, quarter of a dollar, half dollar, dollar of 1908, roster of Alexandria-Washington Lodge and names of all Masons attending the corner stone laying, together with the names of the officers and members of the City School Board. METHODIST PROTESTANT CHURCH.

Rally Day was observed with appropriate exercises at all the services of the M. P. Church yesterday. At the morning session of the Sunday school the teachers and scholars were divided into the "Blue and Red" divisions, for a contest on increase in membership, starting from the service of the afternoon. A number of new scholars were brought in at three o'clock; the Reds scoring on the blues, both in point of attendance and additions to their ranks. At the afternoon service a number of recitations were given, a duet, and several choruses. The superintendent, Mr. J. H. Trimyer, made an address on "Our Sunday School"—in which he cited that in the last 18 months the ranks of the school had increased from 5 to 14 teachers; from less than 40 to more than 175 scholars, and that in that time the collections had amounted to about $240, and there had been given nearly $40 to foreign missions. He then outlined the standard to be aimed at the coming quarter.

At the morning service the pastor, Rev. G. I. Humphreys, preached on the subject "A Great Work," from the text "I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down." (Neh. 6:3)

The service at 7:30 o'clock was the Christian Endeavor Rally.

The song service was followed by an impressive consecrational led by R. H. Bartlett. The pastor then gave an address, introducing the "Best Yet" campaign, for seven special phrases of church work, and the motto for the campaign was "As much as in me is, I am ready." The plea for the campaign met with a united and hearty response that was inspiring. The sacrament of the Lord's supper was then administered to a large number of persons.

The decorations of the pulpit were a harmonious and tasteful floral display. Large congregations were in attendance at all the services.

The pastor announced that Mr. Robert L. Downing, the converted actor, now in evangelistic work, would be at the church for revival services two weeks this fall. Mr. Downing will come Saturday, October 24, and continue till November 6. On the Sunday afternoons of October 25 and November 1 he will hold meetings for "men only." Mr. Downing is being wonderfully used of God in the salvation of souls. He has been at the M. P. Church at Crisfield, Md., in a two weeks' meeting in which there has been over 250 conversions, and the meeting still continues. Remember he will be at the M. P. Church October 24 to November 6. The public is cordially invited.

VIOLATION OF LAW.

It is a gross violation of law for anyone to obstruct the approach to a fire plug, yet at the foot of Prince street, on Union, yesterday, if a fire had occurred an engine could not have gotten within 10 feet of the city plug. Someone should look into the matter, for there are a great many buildings of value in that immediate neighborhood and a fire would do a great deal of damage if there was any trouble experienced in reaching the plug.

Reade's Dramatic Failures.

It was not until 1856, when Charles Reade was forty-two, that he obtained reputation as a novelist, a reputation to which he did not aspire, for it was his ambition to be a dramatist. From the beginning of his career until the last year of his life he wrote play after play, every one of them a failure and he alone refusing to believe it. He attributed their want of success to every cause but the right one, and he went on squandering the money gained from his more successful novels on the production of bad plays. "The actors are duffers, sir," he would say, "who have defiled my composition, mixed ditch water with my champagne, murdered my work," and he would pour out maledictions on the heads of all who had anything to do with the unfortunate piece, from scenic artist to super, never conceiving that he himself was the sole culprit. And yet, as his novels show, he had dramatic ability of a high order and could produce the most thrilling effects and situations. He wrote two or three dramas in collaboration with Tom Taylor and Dion Boucicault that had a brief success, but apart from these he never wrote a play that met with the slightest degree of popular favor.

Poultry Fakes.

"Oh, yes," said the poultry farmer, "there are tricks in every trade! Take, for instance, this old rooster here." The rooster was old. There was no denying it. He was as tough an old rooster as ever graced the summer boarders' table of a New England farm.

"Take this old rooster," said the farmer, seizing a paint brush. "Black up his feet. Then break his breastbone, so, with a long pair of scissors. Then push the breast up high. What's the result? A fine young turkey's the result, and knowing housewives will scramble over one another to buy him."

With a harsh laugh the farmer turned to a skeleton chicken. "This bird is a regular skeleton, isn't she?" he said. "Now watch me. See, I lay her on her back. Then I place this heavy board on her breast. Then tomorrow when I come to take her to market the board will have made her scraggy breastbone almost invisible, and it will have given her very full, plump sides—no breastbone, fat sides—the sure signs of a fat and tender young chicken."

An Unobserving Thief.

Yosouf owned a beautiful horse which was very valuable. While Yosouf was transacting business a thief stole the horse. The owner shortly afterward saw the thief leading his horse and took him before the kaid, or judge.

"The horse is mine," sturdily insisted the thief.

In vain the other argued, and the kaid was about to give his decision in favor of the villain when Yosouf advanced suddenly, threw his cloak over the horse's head and demanded of his enemy:

"Since you own the horse, tell the kaid in which eye the animal is blind."

"In the left," said the thief, making a wild guess.

Yosouf looked toward the kaid triumphantly. "He's blind in neither eye," said he.

So the noble horse came into its rightful owner's possession again, and the wicked Arab was punished.

In the Taproot of an Oak.

I remember a curious incident connected with the taproot of an oak. This oak, a good tree of perhaps 200 years' growth, was being felled at Bradenham wood when the woodmen called attention to something peculiar on the taproot. On clearing this of soil we found that the object was a horseshoe of ancient make. Obviously in the beginning an acorn must have fallen into the hollow of this cast shoe, and as it grew through the slow generations the root filled up the circle, carrying it down into the earth in the process of its increase till at length we found wood and iron thus strangely wedded. That taproot with the shoe about it is now or used to be a paperweight in the vestibule of Bradenham Hall.—Rider Haggard.

Because it contains Resorcin, Beta Napthol, Pilocarpin, Borax, Glycerin and Alcohol in perfect combination, Rexall "93" Hair Tonic provides the softening, cleansing, antiseptic, germicidal, stimulating and nourishing properties, so desirable and necessary for the successful treatment of scalp and hair troubles.

If used according to directions for a reasonable length of time, we are absolutely positive that it will thoroughly cleanse the scalp and hair, relieve irritation, eradicate dandruff, stimulate the hair follicles and papilla, revitalize and nourish the hair roots, stop falling hair, prevent baldness, promote hair growth and make the hair naturally soft and silky.

You must realize that we would not dare back up our claims with such a liberal offer unless we were positive that we can substantiate our statements in every particular, and the most skeptical person should at least be willing to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk.

BULGARIA MAY THROW OFF YOKE

Events which threaten to change the political face of Europe are crystalizing with lightning rapidity. Almost over night the horizon of the near East, which seemed gradually to be assuming a peaceful appearance, has become crowded with war-clouds.

News has reached London from several sources that two definite strokes are impending which cannot fail to bring matters to a crisis and perhaps force an immediate war. One is the proclamation by Prince Ferdinand, of the independence of Bulgaria, which will include Roumelia, taking for himself the title of "Czar." The other is an announcement of Austria-Hungary of the practical annexation of the provinces of Bosnia and Herzgovina as appendages of the Austro-Hungarian crown.

Either action will be equivalent to the tearing up of the treaty of Berlin, while Prince Ferdinand's course seems almost certain to precipitate a war between Bulgaria and Turkey. Before these possibilities the quarrel over the East Roumelian section of the Orient Railway sinks into insignificance. Both armies are reported to be quietly and swiftly mobilizing near the borders. Bulgaria is said to be buying up munitions and horses on an extensive scale.

Kodol is a combination of the natural digestive juices and it digests all classes of food and every kind of food, so you see it will do the work that the stomach itself does. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

The Canadian Pacific Railway officials at Montreal say that the strike is over and that the men will return to work unconditionally.

Do not let anyone tell you that something else is just as good as DeWitt's Kidney and Bladder Pills because there isn't anything just as good. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supple energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
